Hello everyone,

After receiving the email from Jai about not being able to pay any fee for the show, we had to go back to the drawing board and look at the finances for this trip. We really cant afford to be loosing that money ... The band is loosing there ass already and as much as we understand that the money might not be there, we really need it in order to make this trip work for us.

I also looked in to skipping singapore and fly home straight from indonesia but that's also not an option as flights are way more expensive leaving from there.

As we have no idea what money we can expect to get from the shows in china, the risk we are taking is probably way too high for us. I understand that this is a tour on a lower level but we cant do it without knowing exactly what money we will be making in comparison to our expenses. As I said, we are already loosing more money than we can potentially make back with merchandise sales.

We want to invest in all these markets but as it stands right now, we are loosing around 5.000usd.

Here are a few options:

we get a fixed guarantee for all the shows in china and go back to the drawing board to see how that will help.

we keep the deal for singapore as it was originally offered to us when we confirmed the tour.

we cancel all the dates and see if we can make it work at a different time.

Don't get me wrong, we wanna do this trip and we will do whatever it takes from our end to make it work. But we cant have the deals change the way they were if its not in the bands favor. That we had to move dates around in indonesia and that we had to fly to indonesia on a different day than originally expected, our flights are already 400 usd more expensive per person.

Lets see how we can work on this together ... I assume nobody wants throw away all the work we all already invested in this.

Hi Eko,
I will start looking into various flight options now. As most of the cities we have to fly to or out of, have numerous airports, I would like to get in touch with each local promoter to figure out what the best options would be. I only have your contact details and Jockey's who I believe is doing the Bangkok show. So please forward me all the other contacts as soon as you.

Also to be 100% sure ... These are the flights the band will have to book and pay for:

Tokyo – Beijing
 Bangkok – Jakarta
 Pontianak – Singapore
 Singapore - Home

The flight from Hongkong to Bangkok will be booked and paid for by Riz who is doing China and the Hongkong show. All travels within China and to Hongkong and internal travels in Indonesia will be covered by the promoters.

Please get me all the contacts and confirm the travel deal.

Thanks and have a great weekend,

Dirk

Hi eko,
 I just got a disturbing email from Rob. Apparently the 2 last shows in indonesia got canceled (30.07 in Jakarta and 31.07 in Pontianak).

First of all, what's the reason for that and 2nd of all, how do you think about compensating the band for the 2 lost shows and how will you get them to Singapore on august 1st? This can all not be the band's expense! We are already loosing a lot of money on this trip but can not afford to loose any more when its not the band's fault.

3 out of the shows that you got us got cancelled and this is a huge financial burden for the band.

I just tried to call you but got no answer ... Please get back to me asap! This needs to be dealt with by tomorrow evening my time. As you know, there is a travel day tomorrow so there will be enough time to deal with all of this.

for another 2 dates in Indonesia, i'm still waiting for that but will finalize it asap

Jakarta and Pontianak are no way going to be able to change their deal. they not a rich place regardless what people think. Plus this is the same deal that we gave to bands like Terror and Parkway Drive. Both these bands are bigger then Born From Pain and they were okay about doing it.

Let me know if we're canceling. I'd like to announce the cancellation as soon as possible.

for Singapore, Jai from reconstrux (reconstruxbookings@hotmail.com) will contacting you for that
