ABSTRACT

LSM Bombers Corporation Center company which placed at Cikupa RT02/01 No. 106 Padasuka village, Kutawaringin subdistrict, Bandung regency is home industry company which runs at a recycling plastic drinking bottle and turns those plastic drinking bottle into a unique handmade business which has an add value and usefull object. Processing of financial statements contained in the LSM Bombers Corporation Center home industry is still a semi-computerized, although still using Microsoft Excel 2007 and do not meet the standards of financial accounting so that the financial reporting process is still much that needs to be repaired. Based on those issue, the writer decide to make desertation with titled "Accounting information System Financial statements At LSM Bombers Corporation Center Company using PHP and Mysql Web Design".

The writer using primary or secondary data as research design, an Academic research. The type of data which writer use are primary and secondary data, research method that writer use are description and survey, data collection technique that use by writer are based on interview, observation and literature studies, methodology which are oriented to process, data and output are system development which writer choose as system development. Development system information that use by writer is Iterasi. System information design which used are context diagram, data flow diagram and flowchart.

After writer made the accounting information system design of the financial statements, expected in the process of financial statement data processing carried out systematically and effectively and efficiently.

Key word: Accounting information System Financial statements At LSM Bombers Corporation Center Company using PHP and Mysql Web Design