ABSTRACT

SMAN Cimahi are addressed Jl. Kihapit Barat 323 Cimahi. At the time of recording are still using Microsoft Excel 2007 as a means of manual counting, making tables and typing, and recording of financial statement. Transaction cash flows occur started from dsp transaction, spp transaction, operational help school transaction, expense transaction, purchase of equipment, purchase of supplies. Therefor it takes the existence of a good system to produce accurate information and accordance with needs.Top of Problem, so the writer take title Design of Accounting Information System Financial Statement Cash Flow At SMA Negeri 4 Cimahi With Software Microsoft Visual Basic 6.0 and SQL Server 2000 By Based of Client Server,

Type of research that writer is using academic research,the outher using the data type is qualitative data quantitative data, research design tht writer used research design with descriptive-analytical, the research method which writer using deskriptif research and syrvey research, data collection techniques that authors used field research consisting of an interview and observation, library research and studies case method, system development method which writer using a methodology that berorientsion the process, and output data. The structure of system development which writer us waterfall. The design of information system used the context diagram, data flow diagrams and system flow charts.

Design of financial statement cash flow accounting information systems this in accordance with governmental accounting standars and the output consist of report of cash receipt, expense reports consist of reports SPP, report DSP,report BOS, report LDP, report of cash receipt and disbursement.

Keywords: Design, Accounting Information Systems, Financial Statement of Cash Flows, Microsoft Visual Basic 6.0 and SQL Server 2000.