ABSTRACT

Growh of a information make a instance for doing change in to system. As thet in Smp Plus Assalaam Bandung where the system ennollement the new student get do manual, that is data cultivation process still that the bundles. That why with to use information technologi with computer development the in the data cultivation to be the aficien and fast.

Applying of computer system in Smp Plus Assalaam Bandung Is focused to implementation a system of acceptionce a new student. The process of acceptane a new student become more faster and mare accurate objection data processing with development or approaching system which designed using prototyping development methods by a modeling appliance which used is a Flowmap, Context Diagrams, DFD, Correlation Table and ERD, Visual Basic 6.0 Applications program with SQL Server 2000 database.

Information system registration of new student Smp Plus Assalaam bandung med for the fluency of activity go to school, in quickening process registration of new student, registration process report, new student data later than design data base system and also make application program support school activity system.