ABSTRACT

For the moment computerization technology gets amends, therefore of that deep one firm for the moment indispensable a computer system if a enterprise not utilize its taste computer system is so difficult for gets to compete by other firm. Adverse service of course it will impacted on income, since if service bad therefore consumer of course it is hard to perceive cozy with corporate one ensues consumer transfer to other firm that have the better quality and has good service too.

About problem that gets we settle with one service system where in Services Information System scheme Fitness this writer utilize descriptive method. By undertaking watch, data collecting and describes happening scene observational place. Meanwhile system development method that utilized by writer is prototype. Besides writer also utilize Borland's software Delphi 7 as programming languages it and SQL'S Microsofts servers 2005 as database it.

Result a stop to this research is build a fitness's ministering application on service firm which is in fitness's leasing area that gets location at functioning Bandung city to help SDM'S part in does various that transactions is more correct and accurate can also give information to all party those are on in that firm

Key word: information system, service, fitness, fitness's services information system