ABSTRACT

Attendance is important matter for a resort or company. Attendance be said important because can influence salary magnitude or wage a employee and from also can see performance one employee often present also absent. Therefore, in attendance process the execution very need accuracy in the execution so that doesn't retard performance companies.

Watchfulness method that used in system this official work presence information descriptive watchfulness method, while for the system development uses waterfall that cover survey system, systems analysis, system design, system maker, system implementation, and supposed system treatment can help in this official work presence system development. this application program maker uses visual microsoft basic 6.0 with database sql server 2000 and crystal report 8.5 as supporter software in report maker.

In this system is data processing process is effectiveer and efficient. in data livelihood even also be guaranteed easier. aim from this watchfulness will design a supposed employee attendance information system will help performance will company especially human resource area will be quicker and practise.

Key word : information system, attendance, employee