CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION

1.1 Background

The reasons why I choose Radio Republic Indonesia (RRI) Bandung as the place of job training were to increase my English skill, get experience and get more knowledge about broadcasting. Beside that, it will also be explained about the relevancy between the assignment and English lesson which has been studied in UNIKOM. Job training is a media for the writer to apply the knowledge that has been achieved during studing in UNIKOM. My ability and knowledge of English are expected to be able to support my activity in the job training. I did not only work but also studied and applied knowledge achieved. Job training is also a media for me to develop all the knowledge and be discipline for myself. The question will probably appear. Why did I choose the title "The Role of English in the Broadcasting"? Actually, I choose this title because of the importance of English in the process of communication. The second question will also appear. Why do I choose RRI to be the place of job training? The answer is that because RRI is one of institution which does the communication process.

1.2 Purpose and significance of the job training
