CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

4.1. Conclusion

After following Asian-African Reading Club, there are some conclusions gained by the writer as a member of that club, there are:

1. It is important for us to know and understand about the history of Asian-African Conference to appreciate and continue the previous fight.
2. By reading, we can get more knowledge about every thing like history, science, psychology, and so on.
3. Skewing and previewing are useful for understanding what the book talk about before reading.
4. Reading club is one of way to persuade the public for like reading.

4.2. Suggestion

To The Club

1. It should be better if the club is held in the afternoon, so the club will end in the evening.
2. It should be better if the club is not only held one time but twice in a week.

To The Faculty of Letters

1. It should be better if there is a reading club to increase an interest in reading.
2. It will help the student of English Department to improve the speed of reading by creating the club.

To The English Department

1. Provide the facilities to support the created of the club.
