The purpose of the study is to find iut inside of contruction fanfiction Asystole. To reach the purposes, three question appeared, how is dimension of text of fanfiction Asystole, how is dimension of social cognition of fanfiction Asystole, and how is social context of fanfiction Asystole.

This research uses qualitative approaching and critical discourse analysis research method. As well as, the data aggregation technique is documentation literature study and searching by internet.

The result of the study, on the dimesion of text shows that Asystole is a text with choice of words has firm and deep meaning. While on the dimension of social cognition shows that Hecate is fan of girl group form Korea, So Nyeo Shi Dae who gave him cognition to written this fanfiction. Dimension of social context shows that people on that time is the effect of So Nyeo Shi Dae popularity. Fanfiction writer has more passion to write especially since Asystole had written.

The conclusion is keep survive for a better life while there must be sacrificed. Asystole is representation of that thing. My advice is keep writing and make a better fanfiction with more variation.
