ABSTRACT

Sometimes we underestimate the ablution movements, but it is a condition for validity ablution of prayer. Not working on one movement then ablution invalid either because of accidental or forgotten. Just as ablution, prayer harmony in running order is mandatory, because if one move left in the pillars of our prayers, our prayers are not valid then. Then, if we are in an area that is predominantly non-Muslim religions, then we will be hard to find a place of worship for Muslims. We become confused and difficult to find where the direction of qibla. According to Shari'a law, face Qibla direction is defined as a person's entire body facing toward the Ka'bah situated in Mecca which is the central foundation of the Muslim Ummah to refine some of their worship. Therefore, I try to create a software "Development Application Guide To Prayer For Android" is shown to operate android gadget collection system.

Researchers used a descriptive research design for this study and primary data obtained by observations of several software guide prayer in some android market. While the secondary data obtained by the documentation of several books, such as "Pemrograman Aplikasi Mobile Smartphone dan Tablet PC berbasis Android" by Nazaruddin Intercessory, Hacking & Programming dengan Android SDK untuk Advanced by Edy Winarno ST, M.Eng., Ali Zaki, dan SmitDev Community and the book " Membongkar Source Code berbagai aplikasi Android " by Ivan Michael Siregar, ST, MT In this research, system development method used is method Waterfall system development.

Made an application with the Development Application is expected to guide prayer of the Muslims is not difficult to determine which direction the position is a requirement to perform the prayer, ablutions are disunahkan procedures for the prophet who is also legal requirements to establish the prayer, and pray that if the pillars left then his prayer is not valid either intentionally or forgotten. Then the features expected to make reading the prayer of the Muslims to further refine his worship.
