ABSTRACT

STUDENT SELF-CONCEPT AS
A COMMUNITY MEMBER IN LIGHT RED IMPROMTU SINGERS
ROAD IR. H. DJUANDA BANDUNG
(Study of Self Concept Students Regarding Deskriptif For Community Members Impromptu singers in the Red Light Road Ir. H. Djuanda Bandung)

By:
Metaning Selajati Puspa
NIM. 41807014

This thesis under the guidance :
Drs. Manap Solihat M.Si

The research objective is to find out how self-concept students as a community of impromptu singers in the traffic light at Ir. H. Djuanda Bandung street. To answer the issues of this research raised indicator like students view themselves, others opinion, family opinion, communication patterns, and self-concept

The research approach is qualitative with study deskriptif method. Data were collected through interviews, literature study, and internet searching. Subjects of this research were students consisting of a resource. Obtained through interview techniques, observation, documentation, literature study, and internet searching. Data analysis techniques is done by selecting the data, data classification, formulating the research results, and analyze the results of the research.

Results of the research is 1) Student sees itself as an average student who spent his days with activities as a collegestudent with a routine activity 2). Others considered that the existence of this impromptu singers community as college students become something positive and negative. 3). The family felt that community of impromptu singers as a college students is not judged negatively, but there is also positive. 4). Self-concept of their self to show to other people when they become impromptu singers or college students

Conclusions of this research are student self concept as a community of impromptu singers in the traffic light at ir.hj.djuanda bandung street as well the same with other students in general.

Suggestion of this research is student self concept as a impromptu singers community should be in accordance with the concept or the assessment of the public to avoid the negative judgments of outsiders.