ABSTRACT

Tourism represent state's stock exchange asset giving big share in development of state, so that require to be given by a good promotion and have continuation. One of the effort from this promotion is giving good information at every location of Tourism object, including its presentation form. Presentation of information about Tourism object specially in Sub-Province of Nganjuk, still use the manual way of presentation which only in the form of manual article in blackboard, so that computer needed in designing information at Tourism object. Scheme of this information expected can assist on duty Sub-Province tourism of Nganjuk so that the Tourism object can be presented in an interesting picture both for domestic and also foreign tourist.