ABSTRACT

Badan Ketahanan Pangan Jawa Barat which located at Jln. Cieumbeluit No.2 Bandung, are government institution that involved in formulation and implementation Province Government issue on Area of Food Tenacity according to autonomy principle, decontration and assistance duty. Problem occurred in Badan Ketahanan Pangan Jawa Barat that is the data of employee salary registry report process still worked manually.

Researcher used kind of descriptive analytical research design that is academic research design, descriptive research method, kind of research method that used survey method, primary and secondary data source, development structure that used waterfall.

Research in this report were comprehensive system tool that is context diagram, Data flow diagram, and Flow Map. Research of System Analyst are employee data registry process, and hoping in the future can fixed current system that works, along with handling problem that occur at employee division.

Key Word : Flow Map, DFD, employee, salary