ABSTRACT

Gudang Royal Abadi Sejahtera II is a company engaged in the distribution and sale of foam product. Management of the company is still not fully computerized, it can at least lead to errors in data management and sales transactions. By building the software, expected to be very helpful in the management, by streamlining all the existing facilities at the company, until fully computerized.

Applying research methods to process various data and information from the company, which leads to the results of research with the goal to be achieved. Development system with waterfall model was built according to design needs, and attention to each stage to be traversed in the development of this system. With software developers Visual Basic 6.0 and Microsoft Access 2007 as the database from any existing data and information on the system itself.

Software development will further assist each activity and the activity carried out within the company, particularly in data processing and sale. So that corporate management can be more optimally and achieve the desired objectives.

Keywords:
Information systems, data processing, sales of goods