ABSTRACT

MUHAMAD IBNU HAMDANI "The influence of Operating Processing System/Operating certificate (OPS 2009) information system Toward employees' performance at Operating certificate of PT. Sucofindo Branch Bandung" under leadership of Novrini Hasti Ssi.,MT.

Application of Operating Processing System/Operating certificate (OPS 2009) Information System at Operating certificate of PT. Sucofindo Branch Bandung is means to facilitate employees (operator) work and makes employees' time more efficient for work and result very influence toward quality or quantity of work. The other way, be equal with application of Operating Processing System/Operating certificate (OPS 2009) Information System, employees' increase performance happened. The purpose of this research are knows : application of OPS 2009 Information System which is running, employees' performance after using OPS 2009 Information System, and testing the influence of OPS 2009 Information System to employees' Operating certificate performance.

The methods that used in this research are descriptive and verification. Descriptive method is used to know the implementation of system and employees' occupation, while verification method is used to know the influence between the implementation of system and employees' performance. Then to know OPS 2009 information system which is running using waterfall approach. The population in this research as many as 40 people as a sample, it is called "sampling jenuh." The methods in collecting data that used are observations, questioner, interview and documentations. Furthermore to analysis of data is used rank pearson correlation test with used help of SPSS 12.0 for Windows program.

This research state that implementation of OPS 2009 Information System is in very good category employees' performance is well too. OPS 2009 Information System has good impact to Operating Processing System/Operating certificate Information System (OPS2009) to employees' Operating certificate performance of PT. Sucofindo Branch Bandung is proved with the result of calculation t-hitung 15,173 > t-tabel 2,042, with large influence 66,10% in moderate category and 33,90% with influence other.

Keywords: System, Inventory Information System/Operating certificate (OPS 2009), and Employee Performance.