ABSTRACT

SMPN 8 Cimahi constituting moving institute at sector education. Base on observation result that is done, that information system academic at SMPN 8 Cimahi in particular at process report value and process student absent stills was computerized, which the records data that still use paper so it difficul in do searching data as already archives, other than that data already archives, that enable be going to lose and damaged. Research is done intent to build system who can help process report value and process student absent.

Observational method that is utilized is prototype's method that altogether becomes system development method, if on phase that be walks to exist lack on previous phase gets to be done by increase or fixed up direct without has to solve before hand final phase. There is software for implementation and design of the authors program use Apache as webserver, MySQl as database and Macromedia Dreamweaver as layout and PHP editor file writings and HTML

With this academic information system that makes to be expected gets to give amenity in process report value and process student absent with possess of integrated storage, other than be able become interactive media between student and teacher and then parent and school

Keyword : Information System Academic, Academic, Web