Abstract

Almira Furniture store is a company engaged in the selling of furniture type cabinets, chairs, tables, mattresses and others. In the selling and buying of furniture stores Almira still using manual systems, not stored in one database so it is difficult to know the data items needed. Needed a storage system in a database so that it becomes more effective and efficient in the processes associated with the process of selling to consumers, the buying of goods to the supplier and report selling and buying.

In designing this information system, the writer uses prototype method and using a structured approach as a tool for system analysis. The devices used in information systems is Macromedia Dreamweaver with pengkodingan using PHP (Personal Home Page) and the media penyimanan (database) by using Microsoft SQL Server.

The research that author do, produce an information system of selling and buying products that can support the development of the company and help to improve services in the sales process and report transactions fastly, preciselu and accurately.

Keywords : selling, information system, intranet

This document was created using Smart PDF Creator
To remove this message purchase the product at www.SmartPDFCreator.com