ABSTRACT
THE PERFORMANCE OF APPARATUS THE CORRUPTION ERADICATION COMMISSION IN THE PROVINCE OF SPECIAL CAPITAL TERRITORY OF JAKARTA

The performance of apparatus the corruption eradication commission is the capacity of civil to excel in doing his duty to minimize the act of subverting happened in the province of a special area of the capital Jakarta. Corruption is deeds that deviates performed with the purpose of giving a profits that are not formally to the other party who uses his position to get gain for himself or another person. In fact the act of corruption in Jakarta 11,348, every year this should be eradicated from each stratum of society. Note the corruption eradication commission until the end of 2011 show public complaints for alleged corruption in Jakarta province reported societies achieve 9,507 complaints or 18,45 percent of 51.540 complaints received. The establishment of institutions the corruption eradication commission into a hope for society that corruption be able to be eradicated.

The theory used in this research is the theory of performance of Keith Davis the apparatus suggests that the success of one's performance is affected by the level of ability and motivation factors.

The method used in this research using a method of descriptive with a qualitative approach. The technique of collecting data that is performed in this research is through study of pustaka, field studies, and observation and by doing interviews and documentation. An informer in this research is apparatus the corruption eradication commission and the public with the uses the technique purposive.

Based on the result showed that the performance of apparatus the corruption eradication commission in the province of a special area of the capital Jakarta in the level of its ability to minimize the occurrence of corruption must be improved. A program of education and training for apparatus poverty alleviation commission pac is expected to increase the capability of apparatus poverty alleviation commission pac in doing his work. Motivation KPK officials to eradicate, prevent the occurrence of corruption is quite good, it is seen from the success of the Commission to handle large-scale corruption cases to bring to trial the perpetrators even convicted. Thus the performance is quite good KPK officials.

Keywords: The performance of apparatus, Corruption, The corruption eradication commission.