Review the law on Defamation Sosial Network Internet Media is Connected With the Book of Criminal Law Legislation Article 310 of the Penal Code as Amended by Law no. 11/2008 Regarding Information and Elektronic Transaction

ABSTRACT
By
ARISKA OKTARINA

The development of today's technology is growing rapidly. Technology has changed the behavior of the global. Community and civilization. One resuli of developmen in science and technology among other is technology in the virtual world known as cyberspace or the term internet. Internet bring progress to the space / new world created cyberspace is a world called computer based communication. Internet access via on can perform various activities to obtain various kinds of information. And in the activities internet access does not cover the possiblity arises through net working. Internet sosial media. Thus, these actions follow defamation. Indonesia fositive law in artricle 27 paragraph 3. act No. 11 of 2008 concering Information and Electronic Transactions (ITE), set the tori of defamation actions via the internet.

Research in this thesis performend by descriptive analisis by using a normative juridical app roach, on a qualitative analisis of the jurudical which legislation that one sould not conflict with other legastion and attention to legalisation and legal certainty. Research in this thesis is based on research resulis, it can beconcluded that the action perpetrated by the perpeirator acts againts law. In criminal defamation via the internet at article 27 paragraph (3) of law No.11 of 2008 on information and electronic transsactions (ITE) actors with intentional defemation email and facebook internet media.

So it has a change of violating pollution has been about a good name in the form of electronic information that has charge violate defamation in the form of electronik information that has been in the transmitted throught the internet. Besides, this has been affirmed in the act no consumer protection 8 1999 in article 19. Mean while legal action that can be done for everything that has been violated law, including tort of defamation in the Media Internet which has caused the loss. It must be done any act or efforts to resolve the case in family and give criminal sanctions of filing a law suit through the courts in accordance with provisions of applicable law.