BAB V

CONCLUSSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

5.1 Conclusions

Mirror-Stage concept, which often presents indirectly in novel “Ugly”, is a theory that is always used to reveal the reason why the practical of child abuse such as physical abuse, physical neglect or sexual abuse are often done to the subject of main character that is Clare. This maltreatment causes serious injury in Clare psychology such as anxiety. The mother should care her daughter and not to hurt her.

5.2 Suggestions

After establishing this research, the words below are few comments that are related of making this paper, such as:

1. Research in novel is the best way for student to investigate systemically about the content of the novel such as intrinsic, extrinsic, setting, theme, characterization and etc.
2. Psychoanalytic stage criticism should be developed deeper.
3. Psychoanalytic criticism has an important role to create new stories because of its ability of analyzing the human side of each character

Psychoanalytic criticism can reveal the reason why some events happen in around people regarding to their characters in real life and it can even apply in every work field.

4. Psychoanalytic criticism can analyze the structure of human mind, soul and think. It is remarkable branch of knowledge.