ABSTRACK

World internet progressively expand, especially its use the field of media of communication and information, both for having the character of intern and public. There for the main purpose of writing this final exam is to buils an information system base on computerization at Braga Music Bandung in the world internet. With the existence of website Braga Music online, is expected by student and society get the new facilityto look for education information at Braga Music Bandung.

To reach the purpose, we will take is hence conducted by steps which are system analyse using structure method or using DFD (Data Flow Diagram), while to design and implementation information system Braga Music Bandung use the programming language PHP, database of My SQL and software application of XAMPP web server, while system development of information use the prototype methode.

Require to be non stoped to be conducted by development to system because technology is progressively non-stoped to expand in this time.