This study aims to determine how the existence of a lesbian community in the city of Bandung as a phenomenology of the existence of a lesbian community in the city of Bandung. So to be able to see how much of its existence with the lesbian community including self-belief, confidence, self-acceptance, and the existence of a lesbian community in the city of Bandung.

This study uses a qualitative approach with descriptive methods to describe and analyze the existence of a lesbian community in the city of Bandung. Data were collected through interviews, literature and internet searching. The object of this study were three people from the lesbian community.

The results showed that the confidence given to people of this community had made them feel society had begun to accept its existence, supported by an attractive appearance make this community feel more confident. Self-acceptance that they are doing is to try to be patient with the condition that Almighty God has bestowed on them. Therefore, the longer the existence of these communities become stronger and rise to the surface.

Of the four identification problem, it can be concluded that this community is trying to give confidence to the community by showing the appearance and attitude is good as a form kepercayaan himself before the public so that the receipts are intact diri to accept the increasingly powerful state with sincerity and patience in which they live so existence from this community has been increasingly clear, and appeared especially in the city.

Suggestions given was to start he explained the existence of this community make us open the eyes of the world that there are lovers of a kind that was around us.
