ABSTRACT

Perum BULOG Cianjur Regional subdivision is addressed in the way of Dr.muwardi 175 A. Perum BULOG Regiolan Cianjur subdivision requires information inventory reports and expenditures reports are accurate and quickly with sophisticated technology. To these problems the authors The theme of this Final Project with title "Information System inventory and expenditures in the office Bulog kabupaten cianjur"

In research by the author, the author of the study design use is a design study with data primary / secondary, the type of research the authors use is academic research, type of data the author use is the primary data and secondary data, how to obtain data authors use is to meet directly, the research methods authors use is a survey research and descriptive research, engineering Data collection is the author use field studies and literature study, system development method that I use is the methodology process-oriented, data and output. The structure of system development authors are using is Waterfall.

After the author makes inventory accounting information system design, by using Ms Software. Visual Basic 6.0 and SQL Server 2000 expected sales of data processing in Perum BULOG Cianjur Regional subdivision become computerized with good workmanship and process control carried out systematically and produce effective financial reports and efficient.

Keywords: inventory, expenditures, Bulog