ABSTRACK

Al-Bana Schools Foundation is a means of formal learning activities that aim to educate students to become the next generation of intelligent, insightful, well mannered, and has a devotion to God Almighty. School environment Al-Bana foundation is a container that not only are students in it. Instructional media used in the Al-bana still refers to the teacher's guidebook. Sometimes this method can make students feel bored and lazy to learn and sometimes students difficulty in understanding what the teacher taught. The purpose of this study was to determine the system or the learning process that is running in the Al-Bana, a program, testing and implementation of information systems applications hijaiyah learn letters.

This research method uses descriptive research method, the case study to the Al-Bana. Retrieval of data by interview and observation. The method using the prototype system development, while for the system approach uses object-oriented approach, and tools of analysis and design systems using usecase, class diagrams, activity diagrams and sequences diagrams. As for the software using Netbeans and as a supporting tool using J2ME.

The results are letters hijaiyah learning applications in the Al-Bana Tasikmalaya, as a means of supporting teaching and learning know letters hijaiyah in the Al-Bana Tasikmalaya and can help teachers in the Al-Bana learning literate hijaiyah easily, quickly and more varied.

Keywords: Applications, Yayasan Al-Bana Tasikmalaya, Letter Hijaiyah, Oriented Objeck