ABSTRACT

The paper entitled “Transfering Imperative to Declarative in Guiding Process” describes the process how to transfer imperative to declarative while the writer conducting the job training in the Museum of the Asian-African Conference Bandung as a guide.

The paper uses descriptive method to explain the data. Observation is the technique of collecting the data. The focus of this paper is to transfer imperative to declarative when writer became tour guide in the Museum of the Asian African Conference.

The results of this analysis show that to make the tourist more understand about the rule in the museum, especially in the Permanent Exhibition Room, the writer transfer the imperative sentence to declarative sentence in order to make visitors feel more comfortable.

Keyword : Imperative, Declarative.