History of Museum of the Asian-African Conference

Asian-African Conference was held at 18th-24th April 1955 in Bandung, Indonesia, this conference also known as Bandung Spirit. This conference was very success in creating peace in Asia and Africa countries, because before Asian-African Conference held colonialism and apartheid still happen in Asia and Africa, only a few countries get their independence before Asian-African Conference held. The result of this conference is Dasasila Bandung which become orientation for countries in the world which cannot get their independence. Asian-African Conference was very success not only when the even was held but also after the conference held, until the Bandung Spirit became important factor in determining world history. After this conference there are a lot of countries in Asian and Africa publish their independence. It makes colonialism and apartheid which held in Asia and Africa destroyed.

As prime minister of Indonesia, Prof.Dr. Mochtar Kusumaatmadja, SH,LL.M. often meet president of countries in Asian and Africa to make conversation with them, in that occation the Prime Minister often has a lot of questions about Bandung and Gedung Merdeka where Asian-African Conference was held. They always said that they want to come to Bandung, because they want to know the condition and situation of Bandung and Gedung Merdeka directly.

Establishment of the Museum of the Asian-African Conference

Since there are a lot of questions about Gedung Merdeka and Bandung, they make an idea to establish a museum in Gedung Merdeka, Bandung. Prof.Dr.Haryati Soebadio made meeting with committee to celebrate 25th years of Asian-African Conference, there is an idea to establish a museum in Gedung Merdeka. Luckily, President Soeharto agree with the idea and he asked Joop Ave (Head of committee in celebrating 25th Asian African conference). After heard the instruction, they make communication with Director General of protocol, Consular of Abroad Department cooperation with Providing Information Department, Educational and Cultural Department, Government of West Java, Padjajaran University, and PT. Decenta , Bandung is a creator of this idea.

Museum of the Asian-African Conference was legitimated by President Soeharto in 24 April 1980 as summit of Asian African Conference.
