CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

4.1 CONCLUSSION

a. Since writer worked in Museum of the Asian-African Conference , the coordinator gave some assignment that have been finished by writer. Such as translating Labelling of Indian Exhibition, and tour guide which became the focused of the job training.

b. Since the writer worked as a tour guide in the Museum of the Asian-African Conference, the knowledge of English got in the university was applied to the job and was very helpful in accomplishing the job until writer able to finish the job training.

c. The most important thing when writer became a tour guide in the Museum of the Asian-African Conference is when writer tell about the rule especially in the Permanent Exhibition Room, writer transfering the imperative sentence to declarative sentence that heard more polite.

4.2. SUGESSION

a. Since there are many students at college need a place to apply their education they get in college, the company expected to give another students opportunity to conduct the job training, especially in some company.

b. In order to large the knowledge of the student, faculty is expected to conduct a seminar or some training concerning Tour Guide, in order to make students have knowledge to guide tourist.
c. To be a great tour guide a student should have more chance to speak with native speaker in order to make student able to speak English well.
d. To improve ability of student in speaking English college should have native speaker to teach student.