ABSTRACT

MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEM FILING FUNCTIONAL WEB-BASE RESEARCHER (CASE STUDY IN GEOTECHNOLOGY LIPI BANDUNG CENTER)

by

SOPYAN
10106170

Functional position of researcher is career position of Civil Servant. Career path of researchers begin from minor researcher (first researcher) to the major researcher is determined by the number of credits owned by a researcher. The credit figures are obtained from the researcher activities. In the process of calculating and searching of required data for the researcher functional management often find the difficulties, because the required data is still stored in archive. In addition, the calculation of credit number is still done manually so the calculation of researcher's credit number takes in a long time.

Base on the problems above, so the suggested solution is making management information system filling functional web-base researcher in Geoteknologi Lipi centre. Web-based are selected to facilitate the researcher in accessing the applications wherever he is.

Based on the result of alpha and beta researching and testing toward management information system filling functional web-base researcher in Geoteknologi LIPI centre, can be concluded that management information system filling functional web-base researcher in Geoteknologi LIPI Centre can simplify to find required data of Jabatan fungtional peneliti and also to calculate credit number so there no more mistake in calculating credit numbers.

Keyword : functional position of researcher