ABSTRACT

PT ROYAL ABADI SEJAHTERA 2 is one of company moving in foam distributor sector, in the process of staffing at PT ROYAL ABADI SEJAHTERA 2 still not optimal, because in the process of staffing of payroll calculation process and manufacturing details of income is still done by detailing one by one employee attendance data that requires a long time and was sometimes inaccurate calculations, the purposeof wrinter research is to know the using system to designing, testing and implementation of information system of staffing. The usefulness of this research are expected to speed up the performance of the accounting in performing data processing absences, an employee in filling facilitate attendance and practical knowledge and conceptual contribution to the researchers.

Used method in this study qualitative descriptive, where primary data collecting is carried out with observation and interview, while secondary data obtained from books and documents which exist at PT ROYAL ABADI SEJAHTERA 2 warehouse. Information System development method for PT ROYAL ABADI SEJAHTERA 2 warehouse uses Waterfall approach, while used instrument in designing system such as Flow Map, Context Diagram, DFD (Data Flow Diagram). Used programming language is Visual Basic 6.0 and database application development uses Microsoft sql 2000.

Service information staffing from the result study excepted can control difficult that faced by PT ROYAL ABADI SEJAHTERA 2. The system is developed with client-server relationship so that it integrates several unit. Reducing duplication of data elements, it is easier to attendance data and create effective reports.

Keyword : : Information System, Staffing , Analyze