ABSTRACT

In the increasing of rapid technological advances may affect humans directly or indirectly. Computer as one of the technological advances can help people in improving the quality and quantity of work, both in government and private agencies. Booking Information Systems has performed and Sale of Goods In Screaming Soul Clothing. The advantages of this system is the ability to process the data, resulting inrapid information, preciseand accurate. The error rate in performing data processing can be minimized and the necessary data search can be done easily.

In conducting research the author uses descriptive method of analysis is presented of data obtained from the companies that deal closely with research then analyzed with the aim of finding solutions to problems encountered. In this descriptive method the authors do a few things: interviews, observation, and documentation on Screaming Soul Clothing. In addition, the development of systems that do the authors use the Prototype method is easy to author in the manufacture of the desired system by the company. Booking Information Systems and Screaming Soul Clothing Sales using Visual Basic 6.0 programming language*.*

With the new system are made by development from the old system, expected to facilitate the performance of employees in improving the quality of information produced for those who need.

Keywords : Information System, Prototype and Structured Method, Descriptive Method