ABSTRACT

In the global era, ability of organization to proccesing data is needed. In this case QILA Parfume Shop Bandung a business try the best to be a good institute. The problem in QILA Parfume Shop Bandung has no kind of information system which can support selling and buying activity to be good and and have not integrated the data from one place to another. for thet QILA Parfume Shop Bandung needed some system which can support selling and buying activity in Shop so that speed and accelaration of information to go a better way.

Sistem design that use to design this information system is with prototype methode. The tools who use is Flowmap, Context diagram, Data Flow Diagram (DFD) and the technique of data requirement is deskriftif research method with observation methode and interview to the staff. See the software with use is Microsoft Visual basic 6.0 and SQL Server 2000.

The design of system is selling and buying Information System. With expectation this system selling and buying activity in Shop can be able to be faster, exact, efectif and efisien.

Password : Selling, Buying, Prototype, Microsoft Visual Basic 6.0