ABSTRACT

The Procedures of Implementation and Remittance of State Revenue (non-tax revenues) for Textile Testing Services in Balai Besar Tekstil Kementerian Perindustrian Bandung

The research was conducted in Balai Besar Tekstil Bandung. In the implementation of the testing services performed in accordance with the order of arrival of requests and the test performed during the hours of work, length of textile testing a maximum of 5 days. The goal of research conducted at the Balai Besar Tekstil Bandung is to (1) the types of State Revenue (non-tax revenues) in the Great Hall of the Textile Bandung. (2) implementation procedures and deposit of State Revenue (non-tax revenues) Upper Textile Testing Services in the Balai Besar Tekstil Bandung. (3) barriers and efforts undertaken in the Implementation Procedures Non-Tax State Revenues (non-tax revenues) Upper Textile Testing Services in the Balai Besar Tekstil Bandung.

Data collection methods using 1) a field study 2) literature study, while data analysis methods used is descriptive method, which reveals a picture problems that occur when the research took place.

The results obtained are the exposure of (1) Textile Testing Services (2) Implementation in accordance with the procedures prescribed in the Balai Besar Tekstil Bandung and All State Revenue shall be directly deposited into the State Treasury as soon as possible. (3) The drawback workforce resulted in reduced cash receipts and other workers must be contracted as needed.

Keywords: Implementation and remittance of State Revenue (non-tax revenues), Textile Testing Services.