The Learning of Japanes Idiom which related with nature and animal unsure with used media Poron Chan to Kanyouku.

ABSTRACT

For make the learning system more attractive and enjoyable, one of method is which use interactive media. In learning Japanese Lenguage, this methods also good to aply. Leraning idiom japanese is one of theme which can learn by interactive media. Kanyouku is a union of two or more words, which can not or difficult to translate into word per word translation and to make them into particular words. In Japanese Idiom also called kanyooku. With use a media interactive can make help the learning proseced to get know easier because the learning became more interesting and enjoyable.

On this research, the writer was take topic about the learning Japanese Idiom with use interactive media. The writer make an interactive media forJapanese Idiom learning and trial it to respondents for know the respond. Population in this reseach is students of Japanese literary UNIKOM that consists of seven students of third year.

The purpose of this research is to know how respond the learner about media interactive who was maked by the writer. After give the media to the learner, the writer give the questionnaire for know their respond about the media. And the result is the learner agree that this media can be alternatife learning for learn Janpanese Idiom.

The conclude is this media help the learner in learning proseced, because it can make the learning more interesting and didn't make the learner bored. The writer hopes, with use this media can increase interest the learner to learn Japanese Idiom.