CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

4.1 Conclusion

After finishing the entrepreneurship job training, the writer solved the cases such as understanding the English terms in bahasa Indonesia, founding the equivalent of the English terms in bahasa Indonesia and using the English terms in communication situation. Moreover, the English term is quite easy to use, to remember and to understand. The writer used the English terms in daily communication with costumer and another seller in traditional market.

4.2 Suggestion

There are suggestions for both the English Department in UNIKOM and the students as follows:

1. The English Department must give more option about kinds of entrepreneurship job training for the student who takes the entrepreneurship job training. It is to make the student more focus to manage their business and to run the company very well.

2. The material for the job training specially entrepreneurship should be prepared by student who takes the entrepreneurship job training. The students have to learn to manage the company in order to make the company runs as the business plan. Finding more information which is consist of the business plan which will student takes.

3. The lecturer has to give a details information about the rule of job training especially in entrepreneurship. So the students will not have difficulties to make the business step by step as the standard procedure from the university.
