THE LEGAL PROTECTION TOWARDS STREET CHILDREN ON EXPLOITATION AND VIOLATION CONNECTED TO* UU *NO 39 / 1999 ABOUT HUMAN RIGHTS JUNCTO
UU NO 23 / 2002 ABOUT CHILD PROTECTION

ABSTRACT

Moch Gilang Ramadhan

The various countries consider a street children are significant to be protected, such as Indonesia, a child is meaningful for country because street children are generation that appropriate to be given their rights. Street children are mandate from God that should be kept because in their body there is dignity and rights as a human being. The appearance of street children in big city is caused by poverty, and the life demand that should be filled by street children. The appearance of street children causes other problem such as exploitation and violation. The problem related to street children legal protection on exploitation and violation. The preventive effort is towards street children on exploitation and violation. Concerning to this case, the street children should get protection. The problem concerned by the writer is how the legal protection abouta exploitation and violation conected to UU no 23/2002 about child protection, and how the implementation of legal protection towards street children on exploitation and violation refers to UU no 39 / 1999 about human rights.

This study is descriptive analytic by describing the facts in form of primary and secondary data with juridical normative approach research method. The gained data are analyzed in juridical qualitative, therefore the hierarchy Constitution rule can be noticed and law certainty guaranteed.

According to analysis towards gained data, it is concluded that UU no 23 / 2002 about child protection and UU no 39 / 1999 about human rights can be a legal protection towards street children who become victim of exploitation and violation, this case because in article 13 and 59 UU no 23 / 2002 about street children protection confirms to parents, government and national institute to give guarantee and protection for street children on exploitation and violation. The preventive effort towards street children on exploitation and violation can be done refers to article 58 and 64 UU no 39 / 1999 about human rights, because those articles give ban towards parents other side that want to do exploitation and violation towards street children.