ABSTRACT

The information about variety of Printer use to be written in a book or encyclopedia. The information must be given in a media that can be change everytime in order to give the latest information for peoples who need the information.

The information about Printer of lantern will be shown in an application on dynamic web pages. All data about lantern stored in MySQL database then will be shown in web browser using PHP, so all data which will be informated could be an update. This application support by software Macromedia Dreamweaver 8 and Adobe Photoshop CS2 hopefully can be created more interesting web pages. In this web pages also included input from user, so user can interact in this web pages application, as like as input for guestbook.

This application put forward various kinds of the lantern products and were avaible at the Company of Delta Komputer. Moreover, was gotten by news that were linked with the lantern, both from inside the country and foreign as well as the company's activity. This application hopefully can be useful for all people who need the information.

Keyword: Information, PHP, Lantern Printer and Delta Komputetr.