ABSTRACT

Bim-Bim Shoes stores is an estabilishment primarily engaged in the sale of footwear sale. In promoted, has some restrictiveness in the delivery of information is done still in pamphlet form only, so in need of media presentation of information which can be accessed by the public to conduct the sales transaction in order to save time and can increase consumer interest, either the city or outside the city. Because the sale system and the system promotes the production of goods that are still using website system that has not been the writer in that it helps create a website application systems to facilitate the performance of sales at these stores, using a php application.

Methodology that worn to design computerized system is : analyzing system that is walking, design new system, make system / programming, and last has tested system that made. application that produced in this program maker sale shoe information system application in store Bim-Bim Shoes by using programming language php. This application produces report list consumer, sales data report consists of data consumer report that sales, making reservations and payment data report.

Keyword : Analysis, Sales, Website