ABSTRACT

"The Effect Of Tax Administration System And Tax Audit To Tax Revenue"

(Survey The KPP Region West Java I)

One of the goals of the tax administration system and tax audit is to improve reception. Modernization undertaken by the Direktorat Jenderal Pajak includes restruktur organization, improvement of business processes through the utilization of information and communication technology, improving human resource management and implementation of Good Governance.

Data tax administration system and tax audit of the primary data through questionnaires, to spread the questionnaire to the employee the examination of 50 samples. while the data is secondary data in the form of tax revenue is tax revenue in 2011 of data from the 10 KPP. The method used in this research is descriptive method and quantitative approaches verifikatif. Statistical test used is the Pearson correlation, multiple regression analysis, hypothesis testing and using SPSS 17 for windows applications.

The results obtained that the tax administration system is partially an effect on tax revenue, with the great influence of 6.45%. While tax audit the partial to tax revenue, with influence 9.45%.

Keyword : Tax Administration System, Tax Audit, Tax Revenue