KPU West Java was the organizer on Legislative Election on 2009. KPU West Java have an authority to doing a verification, as the KPU's rules No. 12 Tahun 2008 about the Research Tehcnical Guideliness, verification and choosing the polotical party to become election participant, DPR member, DPRD Province, and DPRD City on 2009. The miss schedulle was happened on way to fullfil the DPRD term of sheaf by the candidates from the political party leaders and unresponsive the party become on of the problem to KPU West Java to faced to doing their job about verification of the DPRD Candidates on 2009 Legislative Election.

The theory that the writer applied in thiis research was the theory that have an impact to working performance on organization by Agus Dwiyanto, on his book Reformasi Birokrasi Publik di Indonesia.

The Decriptive with qualtative approach method was using as a main method on this research. Data collected from a literature study, an observation, a documentation, and an interview. The researcher to choose the informant was using the Sampling Purposive Technique (Pick an informant based on purpose).

Based on the research, the productivity as an input also output doesn't get the maximum level. The quality of human resources was good enough. The responsivity of responsibilities like the cooperation was at maximum level. Accountabiity like a fact and act was not match. Like a case, there are many miss schedulle on fullfil DPRD term of sheaf by the candidates on 2009 legislative election.
