The aim of the research is to know and to find out communication utterances from comer of student university from approaching communication analysis and to know the action of Lokusi, Ilokusi and Perlokusi which is done by the comer of university student from Batak and Sundanese.

Methode which is use in this research, is using Phenomenologi study by communication analysis approaching. Collecting the data are done by indepth interviews, observation, literature study, and Internet searching. Informan selecting done is use by the technic purposive sampling which consideration informan taken. The data analysis techiques used are data reduction, data collection, data presentation, drawing conclusions, and evaluation. While for validating data testing is used by Tringulasi techinc and Member check.

Result of the reseacrh is that the communications which is done by the comer student of university from Batak and Sundanese consist of the greeting preface, dialouge content using sign for ending the dialouge by closing greeting. From those dialouges consist of three action, those are Lokusi, Ilokusi, and Perlokusi, they can enjoy the communication from the beginning until ending because they have friendly relationship.

Conclution from this research is that preface is needed for giving good impretions, sometime the content of the dialouge is not so important than preface word,and then promising is told when the communication its self is not ending because there is still the next meeting, while when they want to end the dialouge there is one code for doing that in other that communication ends and the closing word is done for showing the ethis for doing the next communication.

From the research it is suggested to use the simple and easy word which can be understood and can get good immpresion and the content dialouge should be specific and has good meaning and the communication done should be positif or can influence something which is always positif in other to have a good relationship.
