ABSTRACT

This skripsi analyzes about limitation faced by women character in Wilkie Collin's The Woman in White. The skripsi aims to define the limitation and the causes of the limitation towards women in the novel.

The descriptive analysis method and Marxist feminism theory are used in this skripsi. The method is used to elaborate data comprehensively in which it will be analyzed by Marxist feminism theory. The theory is used to identify the various kinds and causes of limitations to women's character in the novel.

The results show that women are considered as men's property. It is represented by single women and married women. Single women are the property of her father while married women are the property of her husband. All of those are caused by patriarchy and capitalist system.

Keywords: Marxist feminism, social class, patriarchy, property