This study aims to contribution 10 orders for the idolatrous contained in the letter of Al-An'am paragraphs 151 to 153 according to the interpretation of Shihab Al-Mishbah M.Quraish. Fatherly achieve that goal then raised some questions about how the historical situation, the current situation and the values contained in 10 Qur'anic command to the idolatrous.

This study used a qualitative approach to the design of Hermeneutics Tafsir of the Qur'an. Techniques of file collection performed are literature and internet searches of online file.

Results of the study, researchers looked at many historic violations committed by the idolatrous at the time of ignorance. The situation today is not much different from the situation of the past. Still Qur'anic values its many Qur'anic values that have not materialized especially in the first goal is an Islamic society.

Conclusion although the contribution of this letter is very large, but researchers can not completely see embodied by the community, especially in the present.

Advice, people can be expected to digest the message of the text not only as writing lifeless, because a text is always associated with a call.
