ABSTRACT

In the development of business cafe more than 2.000 the open their business within 1 year. Cafe the venti is one brand cafe developing in Korea has typical unique a affordable products to quality and the quality of on rata-rata .Product quality awake started from the management of the beverage done directly by the managerial .But frequently the rising numerous branches there, make investors directly involved in it difficulty in managing inventory.

Information systems inventory web based in a cafe the venti is a system development in order to improve the performance of our employees to be able to support its intended target company .Information systems inventory this web based in a based approach objects and built by programming language php. Programming object oriented and uml notation by making the six diagram, Use case diagram , diagram of the activity, diagram class, sequence diagram, diagram component , as well as a diagram of the deployment design , design , coding, also testing used to design work .

Keyword: Information System, inventory, developing system, structured base, PHP, web based