ABSTRAK

Stage photography is a photography that record the stage show performances, no matter what's the show. Stage photography are generally divided into two activities, namely documentation and coverage. Photographic documentation of the activities carried out by the actors onstage to record all activities that occur, in front of or behind the stage. Photographic coverage of activities on the stage is generally carried the news media for culture / arts in the newspapers / magazines. Photography stage consists of: Music, Fashion, Dance and Theatre.