ABSTRACT

At this time has a lot of advanced technology which has been created as a tool in completing daily activities one example is the computer. Computers play an important role in supporting the daily activities of a job in an organization. One organization that utilizes computer technology that schools futsal where its use was limited in use to create letters, reports and other purposes, while the student data is still using manual recording, so no integration of data stored in a computer media to be used next. The processing of data using a data storage medium that is still recorded in a document, felt less than optimal and the difficulty of finding data for archival storage of the manual.

The method used in this research is the method of data collection. Where do the methods of observation, interviews and literature study method. While the software used is a Java application. Java is a programming language application that can run on a variety of computers including mobile phones and are widely utilized in the development of various types of software applications or web-based applications.

The final results of this study are generated Java application program that can provide a clear picture of the Maestro system Futsal Academy information that can display data entry application registration, monthly payments, scheduling training and attendance.

Keywords: Use of Computers, Registration, Java.