ABSTRACT

Sanggar bridal make-up mida is a business that moves to the field of rental services for .Sanggar mida rents equipment marriage in the form of a unit of package and .Rental many actual deals that occurs every time .The business progress of highly significant traffic unit for not comparable to the deficiency possess in the perspective of data management , especially the management of data equipment rental a bride .

To reduce this weakness was , sanggar bridal make-up mida need to have a system that would facilitate hold in the process of reserving between customers and the owner to give and get the information easily and quickly . Research methodology that is used on this research using object (object oriented) and the development of the system with use the model prototype . Instrument design a system used to describe a model system of them use case a diagram , diagrams and activity in the design information systems data processing reserving customers using language programming php and mysql as a database .

The proposed system can be used to help data processing reservations customers so that can be very effective . Advice for the researchers are perfecting the limitations of this , including forward can be used by the owner of salon and employees to be managing files customers , easily accessible via the internet and tried that system can be integrated with the studios sisstem in mida bridal make-up .

keyword: information system , rental , equipment .