"Verily, with hardship there is relief." (Qur'an 94:6)

To my beloved grandma for teaching me how to read and patiently teaching me how to write

DEDICATION

First of all, the writer gives praise and highest gratitude to Allah SWT. for His blessing and for everything. The writer also gives praise to Prophet Muhammad SAW. for being the best example to follow. Moreover, the writer would like to dedicate this skripsi for the following people:

1. I warmly thank my beloved family, especially to my dearly parents, Abah and Mama, also to my dearly siblings Ifah, Aulia, Amalia, and Khadijah. Thank you for all of your love, believe, support and prayers for me to accomplish this skripsi.
2. To my advisor, Ma'am Diba, thank you once again for patiently guiding and believing me through this process. May Allah reply your kindness.
3. Kreatif Karisma ITB, thank you for helping me growing up.
4. All of my friends and colleagues in English Literature 2012, thank you for the motivations and giving my life bright and lively colors.
5. GF Kufah and all those craziness, absurdness yet meaningful experiences we've been through.

6. Karisma ITB, especially Tumers 35, Departement 3, Kampung Ramadhan 2014 committee, and everyone in this organization which I can't mention one by one.
7. Scientific Publication and Intellectual Property Rights Unit from Faculty of Medicine Universitas Padjadjaran staffs, thank you.
8. Special for my piano (and photography) teacher, Pramukti Nawar Ra'idah.
9. Nur Ajurah for our abstract, spiritual and philosophical conversations.
10. Zulhefni for hearing my nonsense-random-and-absurd thoughts, also for teaching me basic photography and some computer and android tricks.
11. My best friend, Mochammad Nurwanto, for helping, supporting and encouraging me through the process of doing this skripsi. Also thank you for teaching me how to be brave. I owe you a lot.
