CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

The Preternatural (2015) is one of postmodern gothic novel which tells about deaf family that live in a haunted house. In order to get peaceful home, the Nathans has to get rid of it. However, it is not easy to expel the evil spirit. They ask help from several people without success. At last, Nathan's family are successfully to make that ghost vanished from their home by support from paranormal institute researcher, but, a helping hand from paranormal institute will not be succeeded without God power.

In the novel, supernatural beings become a main issue. The existence of supernatural beings in the novel is identified as fictional beings in the beginning of manifestation by its description and then it identified as religious beings as the continuation of manifestation the supernatural beings in Nathan's house. Evil spirit which dominated in an events is categorized as fictional which served as Poltergeist. Further, the explanation about evil spirit is defined as Fallen Angel which explained in the scripture. According to that, the evil spirit categorized as religious beings. Besides of that, another supernatural being is God. In the novel, God only existed in the mind and believe of the Nathans and other several characters.

The supernatural being existed in the novel is positioned in opposition. The novel's main character is the Nathans which become the subject of the novel. The subject has a goal to gain the peace of life which disturb by the existence of evil spirit in their house. In getting the object, the Nathans ask a help from several people such as physic, pastor, and their neighbor. Finally they ask a help from paranormal institute researcher and these people act as a helper in the novel. The helper acts as an intermediary of the God's power which successfully make evil spirit vanished from Nathan's house.

According to the explanation, this research conclude that the evil spirit as dominant supernatural beings is the opponent of Nathans. As the opponent, evil spirit has a goal to make Nathans feel frightened and leave their house, but, based blessing of God, the evil spirit failed to reach its goal.

5.2 Suggestion

This research only focuses on the supernatural being, so there are a lot of aspect that has not been examined. The next researcher can analyze the supernatural event or expand the analysis by relating it with history, myth, or legend. Because there are several issue that could be discussed in many ways include symbol which is mentioned in the novel.
